Donner.-Battery H, 1st Ohio Light Artillery, was paid off yesterday, and about ninety of its one hundred and twenty members gathered in the parlors of the American House last evening for a final social meeting. The members of the Battery had a second purpose in the interview, and made it the occasion to convey to their gallant Captain, S. W. Dorsey, their appreciation of his character, services, and personal kindness to them.

The Captain, all unmindful of his fate was summoned up stairs by a sergeant, and found the Battery drawn up in a circle, evidently ready for some military evolution unknown to him. For once the Captain was 'surprised." Sergeant W. H. Styre stepped forward, however, and soon put the Captain in the way of recovering his consciousness, by delivering himself of the following little speech preliminary to the presentation of an elegant and costly gold watch :

Captain Dorsey: In behalf of the non-commissioned officers and privates of Battery H, and as an assurance of their high estimation of you as their commander, I present you with this watch as a tokun of their regard. You will please accept it as such, with our best

Eighty nine years agoour Fathers declared our land free from foreign rule and tyranny, and with their blood and treasure they secured our independence. The war of 1812 proved our Republic's power to resist the aggressions of furnign fees. Our recent gigantic contest has proved our abil-ity to crush demestic faction and treason, ity to crush demestic faction and treason, and through national affiction we have been led by Providence to national justice and security. After years of anguish and blood we came from the tiery turners at Babylon, with Sething less that our chains; and, ere long, the great rebellion will be remembered by us only for the blessings it has brought, the lessons it has taught, and the glorious memories at has bequeathed. We would celebrate, then, the Declaration of Independence, the victories at Gallyaburg and Vickaburg, the frieingsh of Union and Freedom, the downfall of Tresson and Sisvery, the restoration of Peace, the return home of our Soldiers.

A cordial invitation is extended throughout Northwestern Pennsylvania to all out Northwestern Pennsylvania, to all, without dutinction, save loyalty to the Stars and Stripes, to join in the celebra-tion. All soldiers are specially invited to honor the occasion with their presence, as guests, and it is suggested that, as far as practicable, they appear in their selliers' dress, as no mare honorable distinct on be worn upon such an occasion. It we have suffered and sacrificed to uphold the flag, we can and should rejoice and exult under its folds, that our sacrifices and offarings have brought their glorious fruits.

The Committees to whom the arrangements have been entrusted, will spare no pains or expense to make the celebration worthy of the events to be commemorated and expressive of the prevailing jy.
There will be a grand military and civic procession, in which all soldiers and officers, procession, in which sits offers and efficients, all public secreties, nil trades and the public generally, are requested to join with music, flags, banners and flowers. The fadies will give a grand dinner in the grove-to all soldiers present. Many diatinguished generals and statemen have been invited, and speeches are expected from which we have been invited.
